

A poem by Lope de Vega made in a videoclip. The composer and singer, my good friend Francisco Salas from the Catholic group C1. The letter is based on the biblical quotation of the Apocalypse: "Behold, I'm at the door and I call; If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I'll come into his house and dine with him and him with me. " (Ap. 3, 20). The poem/song is about the fidelity of the Lord Jesus who doesn't get tired of knocking on the door of our lives nor the lack of interest that we often show before his call...
