

To destroy marriage:

- 1- Do not demonstrate you love them, because they already know it.
- 2- Hold a grudge against their mistakes and don't ever forgive them.
- 3- Don't love them as they are, but as you would like them to be: look only at their faults and not at their virtues.
- 4- Get used to their company, which seems normal, something you deserve.
- 5- Tease with your love; there are more important things: make frequent trips without him / her and intimate with other people.
- 6- Automate the love relationship, don't pay attention to details.
- 7- More children? Are you crazy? They only bring problems

I prefer to read them in positive: "7 commandments for a happy marriage"

- 1- Say that you love them every day: he/she likes to hear it, although they already know it.
- 2- Get used to forgive and forget their mistakes.

3- Love them as they are: look at the virtues and not at the defects. Think that you are also flawed.

4- Amaze yourself every day of the possibility of having them close: do not get used to their company.

5- Protect the most important thing you have: your love. Do not risk it and take care of it with all your might.

6- Enjoy every detail they have with you and strive to have new details of love every day.

7- Take care of your children and stay open to life: work and fun are not the priority.
