

To God the Father

Prayer book / Traditional Prayers

Fuente: catholic.org

Prayer to God the Father

O My God, Who have created me and redeemed me by Your beloved Son, I thank You for it with all my heart.
O my God, Who bestowed on me the Christian faith and adopted me as Your child on the day of my baptism, I thank You for it with all my heart.
O my God, who have surrounded me with so many means of salvation, I thank You for it with all my heart.
O my God, who have given me a wonderful angel to protect me, I thank You for it with all my heart.
O my God, who have given me a sound intelligence, a judgment, a loving heart, I thank You for it with all my heart.
O my God, who have given me eyes that see, ears that hear, a tongue that speaks, and limbs that move, I thank You for it with all my heart.
O my God, who have created the beautiful sun to give me light, the waters to refresh me, and the flowers to delight me with their fragrance, I thank You for it with all my heart.
O my God, who make fruits and crops to ripen, and increase the animals to nourish and clothe us, I thank You for it with all my heart.
For all the benefits that You will give me up to my death, I thank You for it with all my heart.
For the grace of final perseverance, which I hope from Your mercy through the merits of Jesus Christ, I thank You for it with all my heart.
For the infinite happiness, with which You will crown me in heaven as You have commanded me to hope, I thank You for it with all my heart.