

Memorare

Remember, Oh most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help
or sought thy intercession, was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence,
We fly unto thee, Oh Virgin of virgins my Mother;
to thee do we come, before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful; Oh Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions,
but in thy mercy hear and answer them.

Amen.
