

virgin hermitess, called "a flower of the Lord" by St. Jerome. Asella consecrated herself to Christ at the age of ten. She lived in a small cell in Rome, where Palladius, the bishop-historian, visited her.