

Roman Martyrology: In Alexandria, Egypt, passion of the holy martyrs Phileas, bishop of Thmuis, and Filoromo, military tribune, during the persecution under Emperor Diocletian, can not be persuaded by relatives and friends to think about themselves, obtained from the Lord palm of martyrdom by being beheaded (c . 306) .

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Filoromus, martyred with approximately 600 Christians in the persecution of Maximian Galerius for objecting to the harsh treatment of Saint Phileas of Alexandria. He died on c.311 in Alexandria, Egypt.

While Phileas Bishop of Thmuïs, Egypt. Imprisoned in Alexandria, Egypt for his faith. Martyred with approximately 600 Christians in the persecution of Maximian Galerius. He died on c.311 in Alexandria, Egypt.