

70 x 7 is endless or at least meant to be endless. It extends beyond our natural realm, natural capacities. 70 x 7 is a calling to love more deeply, to truly understand what forgiveness is meant to be. 70 x 7 expands our heart, our visions, our concepts on love and forgiveness. 70 x 7 helps to build up again what has been broken down, it helps one to start again. 70 x 7 is unconditional love. Love doesn't set boundaries or limits; love doesn't know of any, love cannot bring itself to put any. Otherwise, it wouldn't be love. Any kind of "but" before this only takes away the word "unconditional" and I don't want to put conditions on my love with anyone.
