

“The first school of catechism is and must be the family! From the father and the mother, from the older brothers and sisters, the little children must receive- along with examples of Christian life- the treasure of the great truths of Divine Revelation.” (Blessed Pope John Paul II, May 24, 1987)

Holy images in a house make a difference. Reserve a prayer corner in your house! Make this a holy space where the family can pray the rosary, make a visit to the Blessed Mother or simply meditate on Sacred Scripture. The house needs to truly become a Domestic Church...Christ wants to be at the center of your lives and it begins at home!
