

This year of mercy, among the films awarded by Alfa and Omega many are different variations of that dimension of experience that surpasses mere justice. Mandarins are the story of a Good Samaritan of our dark time; In the spy bridge the protagonist goes beyond a narrow concept of the righteous; The characters in the story of Marie Heurtin, Francisco. Father George, conduct and Calvary are pierced by merciful love. The protagonist of the Apostle succumbs to Christian charity and Little Boy is a song to the Works of mercy.

<http://https://youtu.be/69jHDaxqTxI>