

Here you will find all the information about the work, the author and more contents related to the book.

Priest Ksawery has shown how intrinsically united are spiritual life with intimate life: if I am close to God, then I should listen and fulfill what the Creator once told Adam and Eve: "Be fruitful and multiply". Intimate life.

Be happy, demand to deepen at the same time in my relationship with God and with my wife. The commandment to love God and neighbor is indissoluble, a single commandment. If I love God, it is expressed in love for others; if I have a wife, then the sign that I am accepting that divine love will be to aspire to that our sex life is incredible.

We invite you to navigate through the different sections of this blog and you will know in depth the work, besides you can download some contents of the book.